

ATM

Financial Literacy

This course assists adults with developmental disabilities to manage money and plan for future financial security.

Wed., Jan. 4 – April 5, 2017
7 – 9 pm, $30 (includes GST)

Tuition generously provided by:

More than just a class...

- Participate in interactive learning activities!
- Meet new people!
- Build self-confidence and independence!
- Learn from an accredited financial literacy instructor

For more information contact:

Phone: 403.440.6872

E-Mail: tvp@mtroyal.ca

Web: mtroyal.ca/tvp/parttime

Improve and increase your money management skills!

Upon completion of this Course, the student will be able to define banking terms, develop a personalized budget, and demonstrate safe banking practices

Topics covered include:

- Assets: define what an asset is, identify the 5 different types of assets, set short-term goals related to assets, set long term goals related to assets
- Budgeting: know how needs and wants affect our spending, define expenses and know how to track them, develop a personalized budget, set short-term budget goals, set long-term budget goals, list ways to save money
- Banking: identify the different types of bank accounts with the related options and benefits, use the appropriate banking service safely, demonstrate how to access different banking resources
- Credit: define the purpose of credit, list the advantages and disadvantages of credit, demonstrate an understanding on how to use credit effectively, list various consumer credit tools and resources
- Consumerism: define consumerism, explain how consumerism affects people, define advertising and explain how it works, demonstrate strategies to control consumerism

Transitional
Vocational Program

